In House Research Policy

J.D. National B.Ed. College always encourages its faculty members to do professional augmentation. J.D. National B.Ed. College sponsors faculty for participation in the seminar / workshop and has a provision of duty leaves for attending conferences, professional meeting at different places and participating in orientation / refresher course. J.D. National B.Ed. College provides study leave to faculty to complete their research projects. J.D. National B.Ed. College also provides incentive to its faculty for participation in academic events outside the states and publishing articles in research journals. Every year research committee organizes a state level seminar / conference / workshop for the faculty improvements.

The institution motivates its faculty members to pursue the research degrees and also to undertake research projects. For this, the institution has made the provision to give study leave to the teachers for their Ph.D. degree and gives study leave to the teachers who are interested to undertake research projects as per the availability of faculty members in meeting the learning needs of the students. Giving study leave will pay protection facilities to the faculty for Ph.D. course work in Education. With regard to the career progression of the staff like the faculty members, then on teaching staff are inspired and facilitated by the institution to have their higher study in the distance mode. This helps them for up graduation of their qualification and refinement of knowledge and experience in their related field of study. The faculty members are also facilitated to pursue their M.Ed. / M. Phil in Education / Ph.D. in Education in distance mode as well as in regular mode by giving study leave with pay protection by the institution for their better career progression. J.D. National B.Ed. College motivates its teachers for research by rewarding them with the on publication in National / International journals and on participation in National & International seminar / workshop held out of state. Also there is a provision of duty leave and study leave for research oriented activities.
